Union Bank names Edward L. Levite
Loan Center Manager and Senior Loan Originator

Morrisville, VT – Ken Gibbons, President and CEO of Union Bank, announced the appointment of Edward L. Levite as Loan Center Manager and Senior Loan Originator of Union's new Loan Center in South Burlington. Ed's primary responsibilities will be to originate residential loans, manage day-to-day office activities and establish Union Bank as the preferred residential mortgage lender in Chittenden County.

"As one of the last community banks in Vermont, Union is excited to be opening our Loan Center with such a qualified and experienced individual," stated Gibbons. "We sought someone who would understand our lending goals and desire to meet the needs of Vermonters. Ed's experience, knowledge and leadership will differentiate Union Bank's Loan Center as the foremost resource for residential lending in Chittenden County."

Levite comes to Union with extensive lending experience, most recently as vice president of a multi-location residential mortgage operation. He brings loan office management experience and a strong history of building relationships with referral sources and vendors. Levite is also a member of the South Burlington Rotary,

"I am looking forward to building upon the Union Bank name and to bringing their excellent lending programs to Chittenden County," commented Ed Levite. "Since 1891 Union Bank has established itself as the premier community bank in its currently-served areas of Vermont and New Hampshire. Now Chittenden County customers will be able to take advantage of our unique offerings, in-house underwriting and local loan servicing. Our history is built upon traditional values, and we continue to maintain those values in our approach to community and customer service."

Ed and his wife Lisa and their two sons are current residents of South Burlington, and he is active in South Burlington Youth Baseball and South Burlington Rotary.
