Union Bank names Martha J. Wilkins as Assistant Treasurer and Branch Manager of Lyndonville Office

Morrisville, VT – Ken Gibbons, President and CEO of Union Bank, announced the appointment of Martha J. Wilkins to the position of Assistant Treasurer and Branch Manager of the Lyndonville Office. Ms. Wilkins' primary responsibility will be to actively serve the Lyndonville area by providing deposit and residential loan products and services.

"We are very pleased to have Martha with us again. As a long-standing community bank, Union Bank is very aware of the value local people bring to our offices. These are the people who are familiar with and who understand the needs of the fifteen areas we currently serve with offices," stated Gibbons. "Martha brings close knowledge of and dedicated commitment to the Lyndonville area. We are proud to have her knowledge, skills and enthusiasm working for our customers."

Wilkins brings a great deal of lending experience to the position. For the past six years she served as Commercial Lender at the Northern Community Investments Corporation. Prior to that, Ms. Wilkins worked at Union Bank for more than 12 years, holding the position of Loan Servicing Manager. She has completed a variety of courses offered through the National Association of Development Companies in relation to SBA 504 loans. Ms. Wilkins has also attended numerous classes through The Center for Financial Training (CFT).

Ms. Wilkins is a new member of the St. Johnsbury Business and Professional Women of Vermont. She has served as a Board Member and Fundraising Chair of the Lyndon Area Youth Hockey Association, and she is currently a Member of the East Haven PTO Association.

"I am excited to be back with Union Bank in the Lyndonville Office," expressed Ms. Wilkins. "There are many opportunities to make a difference in the lives of my neighbors and our area."

Ms. Wilkins currently resides in East Haven with her two sons Jacob and Jarrett.
