Union Bank Welcomes Rosemary Gingue to the St. Johnsbury Advisory Board

Morrisville, VT – Ken Gibbons, CEO of Union Bank is pleased to announce Rosemary Gingue has joined the Bank's St. Johnsbury Advisory Board. Rosemary, sole proprietor of Begin and Donna Realty, Inc., specializes in all aspects of real estate throughout the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont. She also co-owns The Gingue Dairy Farm with her husband, Paul.

Union Bank has three Advisory Boards each covering a portion of the Bank's service area. The Advisory Boards act as ambassadors for the Bank, have lending authority and represent the Bank at community functions. The Boards make recommendations to management for new products, growth opportunities and areas needing improvement.

"Union Bank is primarily a lending bank and Rosemary has real estate expertise in residential, commercial, investment, land, rental and property management making her a real asset for our Advisory," stated Gibbons. "She also understands local, having been raised in the area, which is vitally important to our mission," he continued.

Rosemary is a member of the Vermont and National Association of REALTORS® and the local Board of REALTORS® where she held secretary, vice president and president positions. She was voted the local Board's "REALTOR® of the Year" in 2003 and 2009 by her REALTOR® peers. She was a State Director of the Vermont Association of REALTORS® for the past five years, and served on the Executive Committee for two years.
