Union Bank Announces Staff Members of Groveton, NH Office

Morrisville, VT – Ken Gibbons, Chief Executive Officer of Union Bank is pleased to introduce the staff members of the newly acquired branch located at 3 Main Street, Groveton, NH. John Currier Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager has been selected to lead the team. His supporting staff members are Kimberly DeBlois, Head Teller; Tina Hunt, Personal Banker; Debra Lakin, Teller III; and Part-time Tellers Kristen Kennett and Wendy McMann.

The Groveton branch is just one of three branches Union Bank has recently acquired in New Hampshire. The other branches are located in Littleton and North Woodstock. Increasing the footprint in this geographic area has been a goal of the Bank. Union Bank is a full-service bank and leader in business and personal lending. The hometown nature of these areas is very similar in character to the Bank's territory in Vermont. The services and philosophy of Union Bank match the needs and desires for banking services in these towns.

Mr. Currier will be responsible for the successful operation of the branch including lending, business development and coaching of the staff. He previously worked for Siwooganock Bank in Lancaster, NH for 28 years, holding various positions including Compliance Officer, BSA and CRA Officer, Security Officer and most recently Senior Retail Lender. A lifelong resident of Lancaster, John is very familiar with the Groveton market.

"I'm pleased to be joining Union Bank and the professional staff in Groveton," stated Currier. "I'm looking forward to bringing the Bank's services to the area, especially the lending capabilities," he continued.
