Union Bank's Northern New Hampshire Regional Leaders Bring Banking Expertise to the Community

Littleton, NH – Christine Latulip, Regional Vice President of Union Bank's New Hampshire offices and Branch Manager of the Dells Road, Littleton office announces the New Hampshire regional leaders. Union Bank, now with two offices in Littleton and an office each in Groveton and North Woodstock, provides residential, commercial, municipal and asset management services to the region.

The Littleton Main Street branch is managed by Tracy Ash. Ms. Ash specializes in branch operations and efficiencies and brings a high level of expertise to the job. She has extensive experience in legal and financial services in Littleton. "Customers at our Main Street branch can expect Tracy and her staff to provide a great banking experience" says Ms. Latulip. Littleton customers are also served by the Dells Road branch that is managed by Latulip.

Also serving the Littleton area is Virginia M. Locke. Mrs. Locke is the residential and consumer loan officer for the region. She has longstanding ties to the community and has been in banking her entire career. "We are very pleased to be able to make loan decisions right here," stated Mrs. Locke. "Union Bank believes in taking care of business locally," she continued.

The Union Bank team in Groveton is lead by Branch Manager John Currier. Mr. Currier will manage the day-to-day operations of the branch and has lending authority as well. "John's years of banking experience and knowledge of the North Country and its residents are a welcome addition to the Groveton office," comments Ms. Latulip.

The North Woodstock branch is overseen by Branch Manager Ijaz Akhtar. Mr Akhtar is responsible for branch operations and customer service. "Ijaz is passionate about bringing the best of the best to his customers," states Ms. Latulip. "He is the type to go the extra mile every time," she continued.
